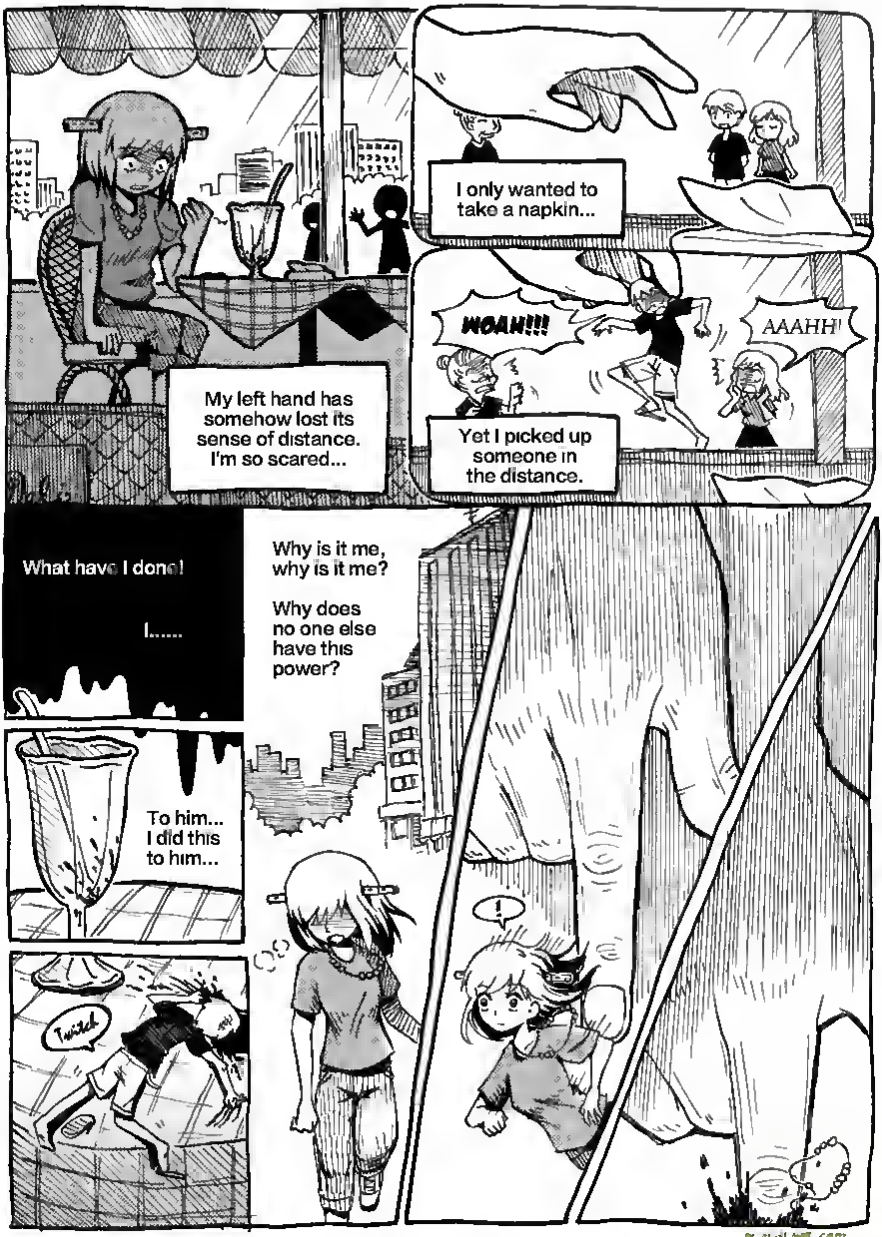
That thing... th-that thing over there

What a peaceful afternoon (sip tea)

Lots and lots and lots

No matter who sees her,
they never fail to notice her fingers full of rings,
and be marveled by them.
These rings... each has its own meaning?
Yes, each of them has a story behind.
You expressly invited me here to hear me tell stories, right?
Those two form a pair. Originally I bought them for a friend and I, she's no longer around now.
This ring was from my ex-husband, he said that it matches with my eye colour. He also passed away.
This ring was bought this year, for my first birthday.
Then there's this one... ah, and this one...
Ah, this ring is the most precious one. Each of my thousand siblings has it...
If...
That's amazing!
If I fail, will she buy a ring to remember me?

God's hand



I only wanted to take a napkin...
WOAH!!!
AAAHH!
My left hand has somehow lost its sense of distance. I'm so scared...
Yet I picked up someone in the distance.
What have I done!
I.....
Why is it me, why is it me?
Why does no one else have this power?
To him... I did this to him...

The last...

On an ordinary afternoon, a man is reaching his hand forward.
This is the last time he reaches out his hand
I WANNA SEE HER!
Come on Almost there
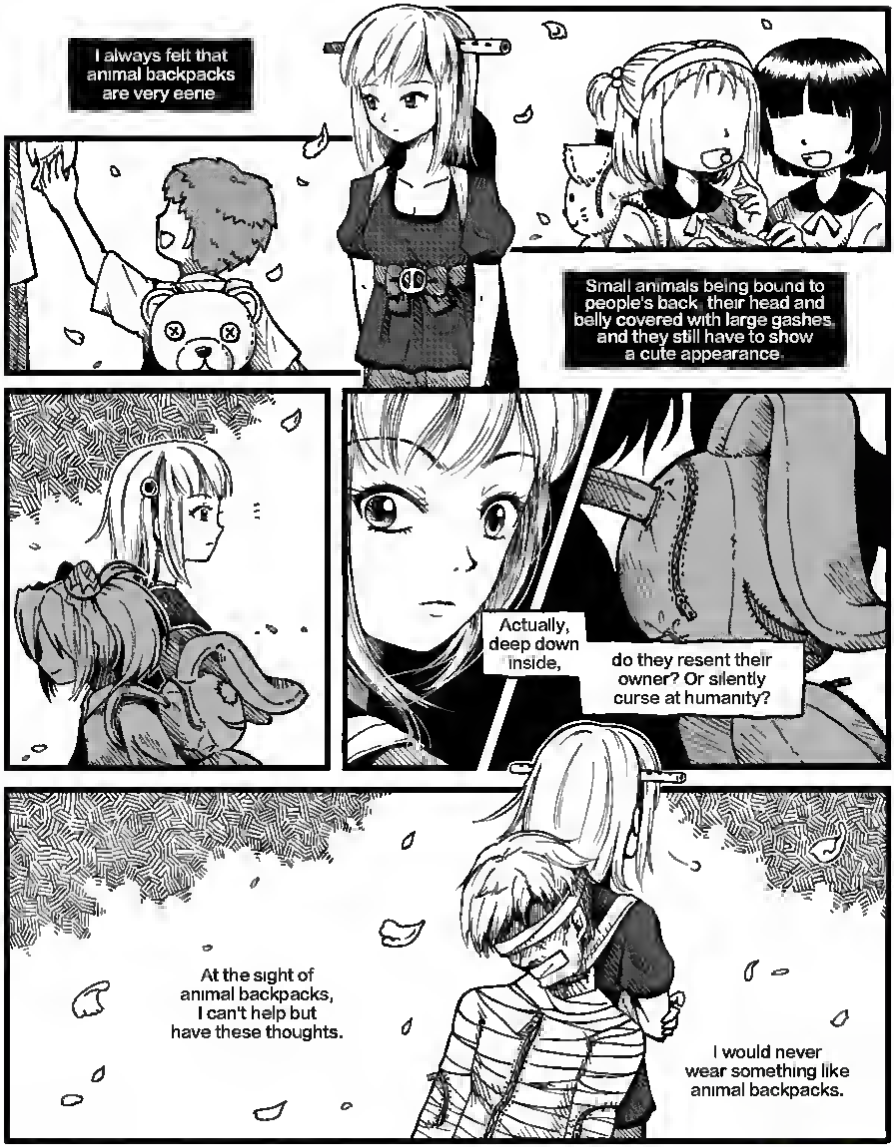
Her photo
Keep going
It hurts
It hurts
It hurts
It hurts
It hurts
MOVE, HANDS!
Ar... almost there...
Ah crap
Gym
Looking at a muscular man with his dying breath? Is this guy...

Farewell

Mister C from my workplace likes to drink strong coffee to refresh himself.
He will often use 3 packets of instant coffee at once.
He seems to drink more and more recently.
Suddenly, he looked in my direction.
The next day, Mister C didn't come to work. Only afterwards did we learn that he jumped off a building and killed himself.
Everyone was very shocked, but for some reason I don't feel surprised in the slightest.

Right behind you



I always felt that animal backpacks are very eerie
Small animals being bound to people's back, their head and belly covered with large gashes, and they still have to show a cute appearance.
Actually, deep down inside,
do they resent their owner? Or silently curse at humanity?
At the sight of animal backpacks, I can't help but have these thoughts.
I would never wear something like animal backpacks.
